GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

At Camp Staunton Meadows, trust, communication, honesty, and respect are keys to a successful community. Although some expectations and rules may be decided within a cabin group, there are some that are simply not negotiable that relate to safety, the law, and camp standards. Some examples of such expectations include using safety equipment (lifejackets in all boating, safety helmets in all riding), properly using and caring for all equipment, and remaining in the supervision of a staff member at all times. For health, safety, privacy or other reasons, repeated failure to adhere to such standards may lead to dismissal from camp. The following is absolutely not permitted by campers or staff at CSM: Possession of firearms or other weapons, the use and/or possession of illegal drugs/and or alcohol, and the use of any tobacco products. Disregarding these policies leads to dismissal.

I promise to abide by the rules of Camp Staunton Meadows, to show integrity and to participate in a positive manner.
